Reminders

The Y'mei Bein Hametzarim, the Three Weeks, began at nightfall (shekiya) on Wednesday evening, July 5th (see Tidbits to Parashas Chukas-Balak for more information). The haftarah of Parashas Mattos (Yirmiyah 1:1-2:3) is leined this Shabbos. This haftarah is the first in the series of the Shalosh D'Puranusa, the Three Haftaros of Chastisement that are leined on the three Shabbosos leading up to Tisha B'av.

Parshah in a Paragraph

Pinchas: Pinchas and his descendants are rewarded with Kehuna • Commandment to wage war against the Midianites • The generation of the 40th year in the Midbar is counted • Eretz Yisrael is to be divided among the shevatim • The Bnos Tzelafchad request their father's portion of the land • Hashem informs Moshe that he will pass away before entering the land • Yehoshua Bin Nun is appointed as Moshe's successor • The daily Korban Tamid • The Korbanos Mussaf of

Shabbos, Rosh Chodesh, and the Holidays

Haftarah: The haftarah of Parashas Mattos is leined. The Navi Yirmiyah (1:1-2:3) foretells the impending destruction of Yerushalayim because of the sins of the Bnei Yisrael. The haftarah ends with predicting the future redemption, "Zacharti lach chessed ni'urayich", that Hashem will remember the nation's earlier good deeds and grant their return to Eretz Yisrael.

For the Shabbos Table

“וּבְיָוִם הַשַּׁבָּת שְׁנֵי כִבְשִׂים בְּנֵי שָׁנָה תָּמִימִם”
“And on the Shabbos Day [you shall bring] two male lambs at one year old, unblemished” (Bamidbar 28:9)

The Midrash says that the two lambs brought for the korbanos mussaf of Shabbos must be identical in appearance.

Rav Moshe Feinstein zt"l explains that the two lambs correspond to the two mitzvos of Shabbos, Zachor and Shamor. The mitzvah of Zachor, to commemorate, is to honor the Shabbos and partake in oneg Shabbos, a mitzvah which is easily accepted and enjoyable to a person. The mitzvah of Shamor, however, is to guard and abide by the Shabbos prohibitions from performing melachah. Such prohibitions may feel restrictive, and at times one may think he is losing out financially or in some other way. But in fact this is not the case. Shabbos is the source of all blessing, and all success and berachah attained during the work week is derived from Shabbos.

The Torah equates Zachor and Shamor to convey that just as one relishes in the delights of oneg Shabbos, one should equally delight in the performance of Shamor, and know that keeping Shabbos in the fullest way will secure much blessing and benefits in the week to come.
